Subject: Webinar Invitation: Pennsylvania's Phase 3 WIP from County Leaders' Perspective

HEALTHY WATERS, HEALTHY COMMUNITIES

Clean Water: Great for PA, Good for the Bay

TOM WOLF, GOVERNOR • PATRICK MCDONNELL, SECRETARY

Dear county leaders,

You're invited to "Healthy Waters, Healthy Communities," a free webinar, Tuesday, April 23, from 10:00 to 11:30 am, on Pennsylvania's new draft plan to reduce pollution in local streams and rivers in our 43 counties in the Chesapeake Bay Watershed.

The Department of Environmental Protection announced the draft Pennsylvania Phase 3 Chesapeake Bay Watershed Implementation Plan \(Phase 3 WIP\) on Friday, April 12. You can read the executive summary, complete plan, four County Action Plans, and other materials on the DEP website.

Reflecting the teamwork of hundreds of local and state partners, the draft Phase 3 WIP takes a ground-up approach to reducing nitrogen and phosphorus pollution in our waters, while enabling communities to reduce flood risk, improve drinking water quality, add outdoor recreation opportunities, and gain other benefits. Countywide Action Plans are one of the key components of the Phase 3 WIP and offer a way for local priorities to drive how state pollution reduction goals are met.

What does the Phase 3 WIP mean for your county? What do you, as county leaders, need to know to begin planning? Join us for an overview of the plan, a walk-through of the process and tools and other support for county planning, and an insider's look at one county planning process.

Webinar Agenda

10:00-10:15 am: Overview of the Draft Phase 3 WIP

Nicki Kasi, Program Manager, DEP Chesapeake Bay Program Office
